Spring Choir Program

Tomorrow, May 4th at 7:00pm

Our school will be presenting "One Nation Under God" a patriotic program tomorrow. We encourage all veteran or active military personnel to represent their branch of service by wearing their uniform, hat, or other attire. Required dress for the Spring Choir Program is anything patriotic and/or red, white, and blue. Spaghetti straps are not allowed and tops must have sleeves. Nothing too tight, short, or revealing will be permitted. The choir is to look neat and clean while keeping within the theme. Remember we are collecting canned, non-perishable food for the church's food pantry. The suggested donation for entrance to the program is 2 cans per person.

Also, remember to stop by Yogurt Beach tomorrow, May 4th from 6-10pm for a treat. If you mention BLS we will get 25% of the total sales donated to our school.

Reminders:

- ◆ Last day to view and purchase Spring Photos is Wednesday, May 9th.
- ◆ Next Friday, May 11th is the last day to order Fig Bars.

Knowledge Bowl

What tool can be used as a instrument by bending it slightly between your knees? What is the universal solvent? What is the name of a baby seal? Answering these and other questions correct gave Bethlehem's Knowledge Bowl Team a commanding presence in our first competition of the year. Hosted by Sierra Lutheran High School, four teams represented Bethlehem against Grace Academy. Team B, consisting of Joseph Seddon, Samantha Steyn, Chunjae Stewart, Ellie Sarellana and Nathan Tack, won first place! In a close second place was Team A, consisting of Hunter Healy, Rithika Uppu, Caleb Potts, Sandra Denney and Hayden Steyn. These two teams will travel next Thursday to Napa, CA for our final competition. All of our teams had many newcomers and we look forward to the experience they gained for future Knowledge Bowl teams.

Transyl-mania by Flip Kobler and Cindy Marcus

Transylvania High School is where the kids of all the classic monster movie villains go to learn the tricks of the trade. There are vampires, mummies, werewolves, zombies, witches, Frankenstein's daughter, the invisible Man's son, and even the phantom of the Opera's kid, all of them struggling to live up to their parents' legendary examples. From science fair projects to cliques, these monsters struggle with the same stresses as typical teenagers. When a group of human high school students stumbles upon the monster school thanks to a broken down bus, utter mayhem ensues.

The Fourth Wall by Rebekah M. Ball

Leaping llamas! The play begins as a murder mystery, but the murder victim won't keel over. The playwright forgot to give the characters names, and a rude audience member keeps interrupting the show. Even the ending of the play stinks! With such a rotten ending and no director or playwright in sight, ad-libbing can only improve the play.
